THE COLLECTION

The History

Since its inception in the early 1970's, UCMT (United company for Manufacturing and Trading of Chocolates & Confectionery SARL) has been supplying its customers to many countries, with a wide range of exquisite in-house labeled chocolates, dragees, confectionery and delights, all comparable in flavor and texture to the very best products worldwide.

The company's success revolves around its founder, a well known chocolatier who has put into practice his master knowledge he gained over the years from working with various chocolate companies. The combination of expertise, devotion, passion, quality, hardwork, exceptional flavors, artisanal fabrications of chocolate, as well as meticulous wrapping of items that made the company occupy the top positions in the trade business and customer's hearts.
